SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 10, 2015

We have a unique episode in the Acts of the Apostles today. A whole roomful of people are baptized with the Holy Spirit before they are baptized with water! The verb used—"the Holy Spirit 'fell' on them"—is characteristic of the way the Spirit works throughout the book of Acts: powerful and surprising. Though this "baptism" is not the normative way the New Testament describes baptism, it is still a good reminder today that the Holy Spirit is not controlled by whether or not we pour water, but rather that our sacramental signs reveal the presence of the Spirit at work among us. And we have a double reinforcement of how this work is accomplished from a letter and a Gospel bearing John's name. It is love, self-sacrificing and self-giving love, that manifests the Spirit of Jesus in our midst. It is love that is the greatest of commandments. The Spirit is manifested equally through those who live in that love.

TO LAY DOWN ONE'S LIFE

Our readings today turn the Easter timeline a bit upside down. Today's passage from John's Gospel comes from the "farewell discourse" of Jesus, in which he speaks of the coming of the Paraclete (whom he bestowed on the disciples on the second Sunday of Easter) and the type of death he must die. It is tempting for us to want to think of all these episodes from the life of Jesus as a narrative biography, but John wants to do something more profound. He wants us to make connections and to reflect more deeply on the wonderful way in which Jesus was a revelation of God the Father. For the early Christian community, it was very important to make connections between the sacrificial death that Christ died and the glory of his resurrection. Our modern minds find it easier to think of the passion of Christ as something that is now past, and his resurrection as the only reality. In truth, it is all one great reality.

Today's Readings: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48; Ps 98:1-4; 1 Jn 4:7-10; Jn 15:9-17

A Happy, Restful, and Holy Mother's Day to our Mothers who are living! We pray that our Mothers who have died rest from their loving labors in the Peace of God's Eternal Kingdom.

Much later in my life, I began to send flowers to my Mother on my Birthday! Without her and my Dad, I would not have had the gift of Life! I remember with great joy the times we would kneel down in front of the beautiful granite statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary at our Parish a block away from our home! I was a small kid, but those memories are so fresh! We thank God for the precious gift of our Mother's on this very special day!

See you at the Mission! See details in the insert in today's bulletin! Welcome Bishop Galeone!

Peace, Prayer, & Gratitude, Fr. Jerry

It includes youth led discussions on current issues facing the church and society, which are normally included as part of a Pius XII retreat or day of recollection.
