SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 17, 2015

It is a seemingly small point, but one that is important to remember as we reflect on ministry during these days preceding the descent of the Spirit, to notice that the place of Judas among the apostles was refilled because of his betrayal, not because of his death. He was, according to Peter, "allotted a share in this ministry." It is, then, betrayal of the mission and not merely death that leaves a void in the fabric of the Church's mission. We forget that in the minds of the other apostles, Judas still would have been numbered in the company of the twelve when Jesus prayed the prayer we hear today: praying that, as they were sent into the world, they would be consecrated in the truth. It is difficult for us to comprehend that Jesus knelt to wash the feet of Judas. These are powerful and significant lessons for us to call to mind and keep in our hearts as we ponder the place of our particular ministry in the Church and the world, if we are remaining faithful to it, consecrated to the truth.

JESUS AT PRAYER

Out of all the evangelists, John is the only one who places actual prayers addressed to the Father on the lips of Jesus prior to his passion. Luke, in particular, likes to tell us that Jesus goes off to pray by himself. But even the most famous prayer in the New Testament—the Lord's Prayer—is given by Jesus as an example of how to pray, not as an actual prayer he is offering. This year, on the Sundays of Easter, we have heard a number of discourses and prayers that Jesus offered between the time he shared his last meal with his disciples and washed their feet, and the time he was handed over in betrayal. We hear these accounts during these Sundays because Jesus was summarizing all that his followers would need to know as they would be sent out to continue his mission of preaching the good news. This is the mission that we will celebrate next Sunday on the feast of Pentecost.

Today's Readings: Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26; Ps 103:1-2, 11-12, 19-20; 1 Jn 4:11-16; Jn 17:11b-19

THE RACHEL MINISTRY

Every 20 seconds an unborn child is aborted in the United States. In the 30 years since Roe vs. Wade, the U.S. Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion on demand, the death toll has reached over 55 million. But the statistics do not document the other casualties: the mothers, fathers, grandparents and friends who are emotionally and spiritually affected. The Rachel ministry is a CONFIDENTIAL ministry for those scarred by abortion, miscarriage or stillbirth. Come and heal every third Monday of the month at the Marian Shrine in the Cafeteria Building in West Haverstraw, at 7:30pm. The next meeting is on May 18th. For more information call 845-429-2077 or the Marian Shrine at 845-947-2200.
