TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 21, 2015

Today the Church begins a stretch of Ordinary Time that will last for five months. The liturgical vigor of the Easter Season and the feasts of the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ settles down into this long stretch that opens before us. During Ordinary Time the life of Christ is broken open for us by one of the Gospel writers. This year we have been hearing the Gospel of Saint Mark. We begin this week by listening to his account of the Lord Jesus calming the stormy seas. Through this miracle Jesus tests the faith of his followers. As we settle into Ordinary Time let us be open to the power of the word of God to effect change within us. Let us pray that our faith will be strengthened as we grow more and more into faithful disciples.

SMALL CRAFT WARNING

When I was twelve years old I was on a daylong fishing trip off the coast of New Bedford, Massachusetts with my father, uncle, and a few cousins. The day started out a calm one, with small swells gently lapping the side of our sixteen-foot boat. However, by mid-afternoon a small craft warning had been issued. This meant that boats the size of ours should attempt to make it to land as soon as possible. We were approximately seven miles from the harbor. Surging through the waves at first was lots of fun as the water playfully sprayed us. Then, through the salt spray we noticed a huge oil tanker cutting across the waters ahead of us. My uncle, who piloted the boat, warned us that when the wake created by that tanker hit us, it would be rough going. I remember putting my head down at that point. I began frantically saying many Hail Marys and Our Fathers.

Today's Readings: Job 38:1, 8-11; Ps 107:23-26, 28-31; 2 Cor 5:14-17; Mk 4:35-41 (Worship, Pg. 1143)
