SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

FEBRUARY 21, 2016

THE CLOUDS

There was a time when I used to enjoy a good, ripping thunderstorm. But since the times that storms flooded our basement and brought down large tree branches that took out the fence and barely missed the house, I find myself in dread whenever clouds begin to darken the sky. Imagine the fear of Abram when the birds of prey swooped down on the carcasses and a dark cloud enveloped him, and he fell into a trance. Also think about the fear of Peter, James, and John when a cloud came over them on the mountain, and a voice came out of the cloud. Peter babbled on, not knowing what he was saying.

THE PROMISE

These clouds, unlike the thunderclouds, preceded a promise. Abram received from the Lord a covenant: a promise that his descendants would be as numerous as the stars, and that the land that he saw would be for him and his descendants forever. We, too, are recipients of the promise. In the Transfiguration on the mountaintop, Jesus was revealed as the Exodus to be accomplished in Jerusalem; in other words, Jesus' death and resurrection would begin a new covenant with all people and with the Earth. "We await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ" (Philippians 3:30), who will come again. We need not fear the clouds any more, for in the words of Psalm 27, "I believe that I shall see the bounty of the LORD in the land of the living. Wait for the LORD with courage; be stouthearted, and wait for the LORD."

Today's Readings: Gn 15:5-12, 17-18; Ps 27:1, 7-8, 8-9, 13-14; Phil 3:17 — 4:1 [3:20 — 4:1]; Lk 9:28b-36 (Worship Pgs. 1032)

The 2016 Cardinal's Appeal is ongoing. This is a great opportunity to take care of the Lenten practice of Almsgiving. It really does help the Archdiocese make the Kingdom of God happen!

I thank those who are so consistently generous in your support of this Appeal. Last year 380 families contributed!

I encourage those who have never given to consider giving! The amount that you give is for you to decide. It would be nice to increase the number of those who have given a gift this year.

Lastly, I realize there are many who would like to give, but are on a limited budget! I thank you for your weekly generosity!

Peace, Prayer, & Gratitude, Fr. Jerry

LENTEN SEASON

Canon Law urges all the Christian Faithful to offer special prayers, to perform works of piety and charity, and to mortify themselves by fulfilling their responsibilities more faithfully. They are likewise encouraged to perform acts of fast and abstinence.

FASTING requires that only one full meal a day be taken. Two smaller meals may be taken to maintain strength but these taken together should not equal another full meal. Fasting obliges from the 18th to the 59th birthday.

ABSTINENCE prohibits individuals the eating of meat. Abstinence obliges from the 14th birthday on. All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat.

DAYS OF ABSTINENCE/ FASTING ARE: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence.
