TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 19, 2016

The readings today offer us ways to understand both the presence and absence of Jesus in our lives. Zechariah begins by describing not the presence of God, but its absence, an absence as powerful as the loss of an only son or a firstborn child. Such is the anguish we feel when Christ is absent from our lives. Paul understands the presence of Christ by its power to extinguish differences that we think are important but that are insignificant when we are in the presence of Christ. Luke describes the difficulty that even the apostles have naming what it means to be in the presence of Christ. Jesus has to explain that his presence as Christ in our lives means suffering, death, and resurrection.

THE WORLD AS WE KNOW IT

Zechariah, in a passage that we Christians interpret as referring to Jesus, vividly describes a terrible loss for which we are responsible: the death of "him whom they have pierced." Our grief is both personal and overwhelming. The depth of that loss is a reminder of how powerful the presence of Jesus is, so powerful that it erases all the distinctions that we think are important. In Luke, Jesus asks the apostles, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" The apostles are at a loss. Only Peter seems to understand who this man Jesus is. Peter names him Christ, the Messiah. That name will come to mean the one who suffers and dies at human hands. To be the Christ, to be in the presence of the Savior, has implications not just for Jesus but for Peter, the apostles, and us as well.

Today's Readings: Zec 12:10-11; 13:1; Ps 63:2-6, 8-9; Gal 3:26-29; Lk 9:18-24 (Worship Pgs.1144)

TITHING NEWS: Last week our collection totaled $20,718.50. Last year our collection totaled $19,043.50. Thank you!

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

From the bottom of my heart, there are no words that can express the gratitude I have for the precious time and effort you all have given to make this year's celebration of the feast of our patron saint, St. Anthony, a tremendous success!

Our journey started late March with our first committee meeting. It was highlighted with a celebratory Mass, procession through our parish grounds, novena, and lots of international food, festivities and fun this past Sunday! The journey came to an end last Monday evening with one last novena, benediction, and a light social in the school cafeteria.

To Fr. Jerry, Fr. Fernando, Fr. Cresus and Randy thank you for the support and help you provided me during this journey. To the priests who serve the parish of St. Anthony, including Deacon John Maloney, thank you for your spiritual guidance. To the committee chairs and all who served on the various feast committees, with many of you serving on multiple committees, thank you for your prayers, hard work, generous donations and delicious food. You deserve all of the credit for the Feast's success!

I had a great time doing this (well, most of the time); all of you made my job very easy. Say, how about we do it all over again next year? Are you with me?

Once again, thank you all!
Gil Giannini
