TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 28, 2016

Humility is a virtue we don't see much in our times. It seems that bragging, swaggering, and arrogance dominate our fashion for everything and our Internet conversations. Who hasn't been irritated by the "trolls" who try (usually with bad grammar and poor spelling) to start an online fight with those whose opinions do not align with theirs? Our stores, catalogs, and online shopping sites are full of useless items geared in use and price to the very rich, as ordinary, useful things seem to fade off the sales scene. As the rich get richer, the poor get poorer and the middle class is fading away. What is the antidote to this? Humility is a good place to start. Devotion to God is worth more than riches. "The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling. God gives a home to the forsaken; [God] leads forth prisoners to prosperity."

THE PLEASURE OF YOUR COMPANY

Today's Gospel relates the story of a rich Pharisee who has invited Jesus to his home for a banquet. Jesus teaches him and his guests a lesson in humility. Take the lowest place and do not exalt yourself. "Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table." We see in the papers stories about lavish banquets, "fund-raisers" for good causes. Some of these are little more than the social life of the rich, raising a small percentage of their cost for the poor and needy, and giving glory to their organizers. People pay hundreds of dollars per person to attend these functions, tens of thousands on gowns and clothing of every kind. Often they include auctions of donated, extravagant trips, the use of yachts and private planes that go for donations of tens of thousands of dollars. These events often raise fifty to one hundred thousand dollars for the cause, while costing a million dollars to stage and attend. To this, Jesus might say, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment." Today's Readings: Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29; Ps 68:4-7, 10-11; Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a; Lk 14:1, 7-14 (Worship Pgs. 1174)

September is here! Many of our College men and women have already begun their next academic year! It is always great to see them here with us at the Summer Masses. Our local high schools and elementary will soon begin! Where did the Summer go?

During the summer, in the School, we replaced an old fuse box with a new electrical circuit box. Additionally, we are doing some work on the bathrooms. When you have an older plant, there are always projects. We thank our men and the contractors who do such great work.

I thank you for your steady generosity throughout the summer months!

With Prayer and Gratitude, Fr. Jerry

THE ANNUAL ROCKLAND COUNTY 9-11 MEMORIAL MASS

The Annual Rockland County 9-11 Memorial Mass will be held at 7:30pm on Saturday, September 10th at St. Aedan Church, Pearl River. This year marks the fifteenth anniversary of the Attack On America. Let us all make the time to get together and remember those who lost their lives 15 years ago. Let us also remember in our prayers the loved ones left behind. May we be resolved to never forget that the events of 15 years ago are very much related to the world we live in today. We are all in this struggle together. We invite all emergency responders who are presently on the job or who may be retired to wear their uniforms or other identifiable clothing to the mass. Please make this your Sunday mass and come out with all your family and friends on Saturday, September 10th. The principal celebrant of the mass will be Msgr. Emmet Nevin, Dean of Rockland County. "In the morning, at the rising of the sun and at its setting, we will remember."
