PENTECOST SUNDAY

MAY 24, 2015

In today's responsorial psalm the Church sings out: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." All three readings describe how God has answered that prayer already.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in the Gospel passage from John, we read of astonishing events that called cowering disciples to step out of hiding and proclaim news that would condemn them and change the world forever! In the second reading Paul's words reach out into the future to us: "we were all given to drink of one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13).

It is our task to truly pray today's psalm response. Let us together beg the Holy Spirit to renew the earth by renewing the Church, sending many more men and women to serve in her various ministries.

SENT AS HE WAS SENT

Religious vocations have always been a mystery. Even in the Old Testament, we read of prophets who, when called, replied, "Lord! Why me?" Those who serve the Church today as priests, deacons, religious sisters or brothers, or lay ministers often report a feeling of wonder that God has chosen them to serve. Therefore, it should be no surprise if readers of today's scripture passages, which describe the disciples hiding in fear, might wonder, "Lord, why them?"

Those fearful disciples were, nonetheless, the recipients of wonderful gifts of the Spirit. On Easter Sunday evening, today's Gospel reports, Jesus gave his disciples the power to forgive sins. "Peace be with you," he said. "As the Father has sent me, so I send you" (John 20:21). From this first "sending" and its powerful aftermath on Pentecost, the Church was born. Out of such fearful and unlikely origins, the Church has grown so strong that it has survived every kind of sin and persecution from the outside as well as from within.

Today's Readings: Acts 2:1-11; Ps 104:1, 24, 29-31, 34; 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Gal 5:16-25; Jn 20:19-23 or Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

It is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic “who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age.” It is a sacrament which provides comfort, peace, courage and, if the sick person is unable to make confession, even forgives sin. St. Paul’s in Congers will have an Anointing of the Sick Mass on Saturday, June 6th at 12 Noon. There will be light refreshments provided in the Parish Hall immediately following the Mass.

THE RACHEL MINISTRY

Every 20 seconds an unborn child is aborted in the United States. In the 30 years since Roe vs. Wade, the U.S. Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion on demand, the death toll has reached over 55 million. But the statistics do not document the other casualties: the mothers, fathers, grandparents and friends who are emotionally and spiritually affected. The Rachel ministry is a CONFIDENTIAL ministry for those scarred by abortion, miscarriage or stillbirth. Come and heal every third Monday of the month at the Marian Shrine in the Cafeteria Building in West Haverstraw, at 7:30pm. The next meeting is on June 15th. For more information call 845-429-2077 or the Marian Shrine at 845-947-2200.
