SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 26, 2015

Do you suppose the authors of the four Gospels were aware of today's first reading from the second book of Kings? Of course they were. The prophet Elisha fed a hundred men with twenty barley loaves in order to prove God's power. This same miracle, now multiplied by more people fed by fewer loaves, is attributed to Jesus in all four Gospels. In today's passage from John we even have the detail that the loaves were barley, reminding every pious Jew of that miracle that Elisha worked. Yet Jesus went into hiding when they wanted to make him king. It is the passage from Paul's letter to the Ephesians that gives us the reason for this. The power of Jesus comes from God. It is not meant to merely feed us, or to provide one group with a king. There is one Lord, one faith, one God and Father of all who works through Jesus Christ and through us all.

WILL WE HAVE ENOUGH?

Jesus told us to ask his Father for all that we need (John 16:23). He advised us never to worry about whether we would have enough (Matthew 6:25). What might happen if we took these words to heart? How can we take today's Gospel and let it assure us that we, too, will be fed, and even given more than we need?

Jesus cannot look at us and let us go hungry. He will do today what he did in his day. He will begin with what we already have, what we are prepared to share. He will bless it, distribute it, and provide enough for everyone—more than enough.

Today's Readings: 2 Kgs 4:42-44; Ps 145:10-11, 15-18; Eph 4:1-6; Jn 6:1-15
(Worship Pg.1158)

PERSECUTION OF CHRISTIANS IN THE MIDDLE EAST

WHO ARE THESE MIDDLE EASTERN CHRISTIANS?

- The Middle East is a region of immense importance to our faith – it is the birthplace of Christianity and the region of Jesus’ life, death and resurrection. Christians have lived in these lands since New Testament times.
- These Christians include members of many different Catholic, Orthodox and Protestant communities, including Assyrians, Melkites, Armenians, Chaldeans, Copts, Maronites and Syrians.
- There are currently over 12 million Christians living in the Middle East. But their numbers have dropped dramatically over recent years, largely because of violence.
