TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 11, 2015

In today's readings, we discover that material wealth alone does not keep us from discipleship. We will see that there are other gifts more important than material wealth, but even so, it is how we use our gifts that matters most.

Today's scriptures point to the value of the gifts of wisdom, trusting in God, and letting our actions reflect the love of God from within. It is not gold that causes us to fall, but rather the desire for gold above all other things. From the readings in Wisdom and Hebrews, we find the source of God's gifts in our lives. Wisdom is more valuable than worldly possessions. In Hebrews, we are challenged to look at our own values and admit honestly what controls our lives.

HUMBLING OURSELVES BEFORE JESUS

Like the rich man, it is hard for us to give up some of the things that we have. Some may count their worth in dollars and cents, but there are others who are unable to give up their power and control. There are still others who crave fame and popularity. Many of these gifts—fame, popularity, power and wealth—have been used throughout history to help the poor and the oppressed. Our own gifts may not be of such tremendous magnitude, yet nevertheless we are called to share them generously.

Today's Readings: Wis 7:7–11, Ps 90:12–17; Heb 4:12–13, Mk 10:17–30 [17–27]
