TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 25, 2016

Today's readings again are directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.

GOD'S LIFE

There is no subtlety in the readings today. The contrasts are even starker than last week, the outcome more certain. Amos, the psalmist and Timothy each make clear how to live the life God intends for us. In Luke's Gospel, an unnamed man from a wealthy family and a poor beggar named Lazarus live very different lives on earth and find very different fates after death. Yet even after death, the wealthy man asks for someone to warn his brothers, again thinking only of himself and his family. Not even the suffering of hell can bring him to focus on the needs of those outside his immediate family.

Today's Readings: Am 6:1a, 4-7; Ps 146:7-10; 1 Tm 6:11-16; Lk 16:19-31 (Worship Pgs. 1186)

ANOINTING MASS AT ST. AEDAN'S, PEARL RIVER
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15th – 12 NOON

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is a beautiful gift from God. It is a sacrament that is administered to a Catholic "who, having reached the age of reason, begins to be in danger due to sickness or old age." It is a sacrament which provides comfort, peace, courage and, if the sick person is unable to make confession, even forgives sin. Whenever a new illness develops or a first illness relapses or worsens, the person may receive the sacrament a further time. It may also be given numerous times in the case of old age or chronic illness based on the pastoral judgment of the priest. This is not to be confused with what we traditionally refer to as the "Last Rites" which involves a three-part reception of the sacraments of Anointing, Penance and the Holy Eucharist or Viaticum. Please plan on attending this special Anointing Mass at Saint Aedan's, Pearl River on Saturday, October 15th, at 12 noon. "Through this Holy Anointing, may the Lord in His love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin, save you and raise you up."
