SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MAY 28, 2017

Today's readings describe the days after the Ascension. The apostles and those close to Jesus are trying to adjust to his absence. The apostles return to the upper room where they have spent so much time waiting. Acts tells of how they stayed together and prayed. First Peter reminds those still waiting that the suffering they experience joins them to Jesus. In the Gospel Jesus prays in order to remind us that he and the Father are one. Jesus' prayer is for those of us who are left behind. It is a reminder that we belong not to ourselves, but to the Father, and that everything, including the Son, is a gift from the Father.

THEY PRAYED

All of the readings recognize the sadness and fear that the apostles and we experience when we suffer the loss of Jesus again. Jesus dies and we suffer. He is risen and we rejoice. Now we are going to lose him again, not through death, but through his ascension. In Acts and in John's Gospel, the apostles and Jesus pray as a way to prepare for and adjust to his departure. The psalm is a prayer to sustain us when we are afraid by anticipating the time when we will be together again. First Peter urges us, during this time of separation, to join our sufferings with those of Jesus and respond as he responded. All these readings are reminders that it is through prayer that we are united despite time, space, distance, life, or death.

Today's Readings: Acts 1:12-14; Ps 27:1, 4, 7-8; 1 Pt 4:13-16; Jn 17:1-11a (Worship Pgs. 1095)
