FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 9, 2017

Humility is a virtue in short supply in today's world. And yet our reading from the prophet Zechariah describes Israel's coming king, in whom we Christians see Jesus, as humble, riding on a colt, the foal of an ass. No great procession for our Lord and God, for he comes not on a golden chariot with banners and a great procession of soldiers and riches, but on a humble beast of burden. What a contrast to our world of designer clothes and cars; of mega-mansions and architectural embellishments. Humility is not bragging about our worldly goods or our accomplishments. Neither is it the false humility of denying that what we do well is "nothing." It is the acknowledgment of our faults and our successes, with a humble "thank you" to compliment or criticism.

FROM THE RIVER TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH

How we long for peace in our world! It seems we are surrounded by constant news of death and destruction, whether in our own country or abroad. We hear and we grieve, we try to give shelter to those fleeing war and crime in their own countries. We pray for them and for ourselves, that fear may not overtake us and make us do foolish things or abuse innocent people. For "[God] shall proclaim peace to the nations" (Zechariah 9:10). We can rely on this promise of peace, if we become peaceful people ourselves and do not give in to revenge or deep anger. "You are not in the flesh . . . you are in the spirit" (Romans 8:9).

Today's Readings: Zec 9:9-10; Ps 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14; Rom 8:9, 11-13; Mt 11:25-30 (Worship Pgs. 1148).

RENEW + REBUILD UPDATE

As some of you know, we have begun the capital campaign, Renew & Rebuild, here at St. Anthony's to help with several needed Parish projects and the needs of the Archdiocese. The Cardinal's Appeal is incorporated into this campaign for this year.

Over the last several months we have been meeting with parishioners. I am happy to announce that 12 families are helping to build the foundation of this campaign. I hope for many more to join them in the coming weeks as we build a team of volunteers to help with the effort. We will be hosting several events to allow parishioners to learn more about Renew + Rebuild. Please keep your eyes and ears open for the information about these events as the Campaign moves forward. I deeply appreciate the sacrificial generosity of all those who have contributed and those who will contribute to this effort. Thank you and God bless.

With Prayer, Fr. Jerry

BECOMING A CATHOLIC

Is someone you know thinking about becoming a Catholic? Baptized in another denomination? Not baptized yet? St. Anthony's is currently holding information sessions on the RCIA [Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults] process for those thinking about joining our parish. Please call Barbara Peters at (845)598-1136 if you are interested.

ALL PARISHIONERS

Please notify the Rectory of any change of address. Your envelopes or any letters from the Parish will not get forwarded. Every parishioner should be registered. If you are not, we cannot serve you by issuing testimonial letters for the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. We cannot give recommendations or character references if we do not know you

Summer is moving fast! As we enjoy the break, let us not forget that fall is fast approaching!

Our Parish programs and ministries help us all minister to the needs of others. And, in that ministry, we experience a happiness that only selfless service to the Body of Christ and others can give!

We will begin to approach people asking them to help with ministries, programs, and various Parish efforts. For the liturgical ministries, one must be a practicing Catholic, Confirmed and sacramentally married in the Catholic Church.

So, I am asking you to pray and listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit! And, be open to that Holy Spirit as you are approached!

With Pray and Gratitude,

TITHING NEWS: Due to early holiday deadlines the collection for July 2nd will be posted in the July 16th bulletin.

Fr. Jerry

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The premier poet of the English language, Geoffrey Chaucer, introduced one of his most beloved characters, the "Wife of Bath," by this telling remark: "Husbands at church door she had five." Four times widowed, she was setting off on a pilgrimage, notably without number five. The church door is a curious detail, pointing to the fourteenth-century wedding custom of marrying on the porch of the parish church. The goal was to give maximum publicity to the consent of the groom and bride, and so consent was moved from the bride's home to a public venue. The priest would stand in the doorway and begin by sprinkling the couple with holy water. He needed to make sure they weren't too closely related and give them some instruction. He would direct the groom to pay the bride's family a dowry, and then announce the monetary amounts to the interested passersby. Only then would the guests enter the church for the wedding Mass, during which the bride and groom would hold lighted candles. The gradual move from home to church and the shift from the bride's father to the priest's authority helped to protect the freedom of brides who weren't quite as confident as the Wife of Bath.

A HUMBLE KING

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today's readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches "from the River to the ends of the earth" (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!

Every 20 seconds an unborn child is aborted in the United States. In the 30 years since Roe vs. Wade, the U.S. Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion on demand, the death toll has reached over 55 million. But the statistics do not document the other casualties: the mothers, fathers, grandparents and friends who are emotionally and spiritually affected. The Rachel ministry is a CONFIDENTIAL ministry for those scarred by abortion, miscarriage or stillbirth. Come and heal every third Monday of the month at the Marian Shrine in the Cafeteria Building in West Haverstraw, at 7:00pm. The next meeting is on July 17, 2017.
