TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 3, 2017

Suffering. We all know it. It is an inescapable part of the human experience. Our readings today help us understand what to do with suffering, how to redeem it for eternal glory. In a tenderly poetic passage, the prophet Jeremiah clings to the Lord, despite the suffering and hatred he endures in God's service. Since speaking on behalf of the Lord is the cause of his anguish, Jeremiah flirts with the idea of giving it all up, of abandoning his ministry. But God is "too strong," and Jeremiah remains faithful even in violent times. He knows, as the psalmist sings, that there is no life without God, for whom our souls thirst. Saint Paul acknowledges the universality of suffering and urges us to offer our suffering to God. God alone can transform our pain, our "crosses," into good for others, just as God redeemed the ultimate suffering of Jesus.

PRAISE GOD!

The mystery of redemptive suffering transforms our lives, but it is not an easy mystery to accept. Suffering is not attractive. Especially when suffering afflicts innocent people, we cry out to God for justice and relief. Jesus' words today penetrate our hearts: "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." We beg the Lord to accept our suffering, then, and to transform it in ways we cannot imagine. Embracing the details and crosses of daily life, we look forward to the day when Jesus comes in glory, revealing to us how he used our sacrifices to bless the world.

Today's Readings: Jer 20:7-9; Ps 63:2-6, 8-9; Rom 12:1-2; Mt 16:21-27 (Worship Pgs. 1172)

NEXT WEEKENDS SECOND COLLECTION
CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

Today, our archdiocese takes up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA), and I ask that you prayerfully consider participating. This Appeal supports the (arch) dioceses here in our own country that struggle to make ends meet and to serve all of the needs of their parishioners. It is through your generosity that many churches are able to keep their doors open and provide essential pastoral services.

The Diocese of Laredo is located in southern Texas, along the Texas-Mexico border. Many of this diocese live on the margins of society, either as immigrants or as people living in poverty, and it is a challenge for the diocese to keep up with the needs of its people. With your contributions to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, the diocese reaches out to some of the most marginalized people-those in prison. Many detainees are returning to the Catholic faith and are in need of the Lord's mercy. Your gifts provide liturgical and educational supplies, help priests offer the Eucharist and other sacraments, and support volunteers' and ministers' outreach to more than 10,000 men and women in detention facilities. Your generosity brings Christ's message of love, compassion, and reconciliation to these often forgotten population.

Your support of this Appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the Appeal this year. To learn more about the Appeal and those who benefit from it. Visit www.usccb.org/home-missions. Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA

For more than a half century, the collection for the Church in Latin America has been a sign of the solidarity of the Church in the United States with the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean. For people living in these regions, barriers to practicing the faith include lack of resources, shortages of pastoral agents, and poor infrastructures that make relatively simple things like participating in weekly Mass difficult. Your support of this Collection helps to share the faith with those who long to experience the Lord's mercy within strong faith communities.

For example, in northern Peru, great distances and deteriorated roads mean that Church agents must often travel by foot or mule to rural communities. As a result, some communities are visited by pastoral agents and ministers only once per month, others sometimes just twice per year. This collection for Church in Latin America was able to help fund training for 65 pastoral ministers for the communities in this region. Thanks to your support, these new leaders continue to reach out in service to rural communities, ensuring that all feel included in our family of faith.

Please be as generous to this collection as you can be and allow it to be an opportunity to share your faith with families in Latin America and Caribbean. Your support will truly make a difference.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,
Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York
